

The "Superbowl incident" with Justin and Janet was sad but true representation of what has become of our media. At this point I won't be watching the Superbowl anymore. There are other ways I'd rather spend time with my family.